AEO Certification Awarded to Our Subsidiary in Europe

AEO certification is awarded to Sumitomo Warehouse (Europe) GmbH (hereinafter referred to "SWE"), our wholly owned subsidiary (head office in Germany) under authorized economic operator (AEO) guideline by EU.

AEO guideline is opened to all economic operators who fulfill the criteria specified with incentive customs procedures. "AEOF", the certification awarded to the companies who fulfill the criteria of (i)customs compliance, appropriate record-keeping standards and financial solvency, (ii)appropriate security and safety standards, entitles SWE to both simplified customs procedures and preferential measures regarding security/safety management.

SWE is a logistics service provider mainly engaged in warehousing, forwarding and transportation at its branches in Belgium and United Kingdom in addition to its head office in Germany, and obtained ISO9001(Quality Management System) certification in July 2008. The Company will strive to provide more secure and high-quality services based on the management systems established under these certifications.
